

Birthing Beautiful Communities GI Project

Applicant: Birthing Beautiful Communities and Village of Joy Corporation

Project Location: 1802 East 65th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44103

Watershed: Lake Erie Direct Tributaries | Subwatershed: Lake Erie Direct Tributaries East of Cuyahoga River

Summary

- Birthing Beautiful Communities will construct a 15,000 sq. ft Headquarters & Birth Center. The building will have three floors, outside landscaped space, and 2 parking lots, all of which are being designed and constructed with environmental sustainability and pregnant women's best interest in mind.
- The soil is particularly sandy, creating ideal conditions to use permeable pavement to assist in the goal of preventing stormwater runoff.
- The work to be performed involves a proposed birthing center with two parking lots with two separate entrances along with the required utilities. Additionally, underground detention will be used for stormwater management.
